UM STUDENT APPOINTED TO VOCATIONAL ED COUNCIL

MISSOULA--

A University of Montana home economics student from Big Timber, Susan J. Gust, has been appointed the student member of the Montana Vocational Education Advisory Council for Region III.

Gust, who was appointed recently by Ed Argenbright, state superintendent of public education, will serve through 1982.

The Region III council advises the state vocational and occupational services department on vocational education programs in southcentral Montana counties. Its duties also include evaluating, assessing and planning for the region's vocational education needs. The councils are federally funded.

Gust also was recently elected the national chairman of the American Home Economics Association's Student Member Section. She will preside over 52 college and university student home economics organizations through 1982.

At UM Gust is a member of the UM Advocates, a student service honorary, secretary for both Kappa Omicron Phi, a home economics honorary, and the UM student member section of the AHEA.

Gust, a junior at UM, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gust of Big Timber.
